Mission Statement
To Love Others as Christ Loves Us

Rev. Dr. Robin Woodberry
Our Next Rector at Christ Episcopal Church

You have seen her picture in several places around the church. You have read what the Search Committee was looking for in a Rector, and you have read Rev. Robin's acceptance letter. Now let's get to know her a little better on a personal level. I asked Rev. Robin to play 20 questions and she was more than ready, so here we go:

The questions I asked are in black and her answers are in red.

- 1) Where did you grow up?
Youngstown
- 2) How many brothers and sisters do you have, and where are you in line from oldest to youngest?
1 older sister and 3 younger brothers. I'm the second in line.
- 3) Where did you go to school?
Cardinal Mooney Youngstown
- 4) Where did you meet your husband?
Church

Absolutely!! Pittsburgh Steelers, Guardians & Pirates, Whoever LeBron plays for 🏀, Buckeyes O-H

6) How did you get started on the change from Baptist to Episcopal?

Long story short I out grew the focus of ministry in the Baptist tradition and after God revealed to me that I didn't have to stay in that denomination, I found my place in the Episcopal tradition. To God be the glory!

7) Favorite food or types of food?

My palette is very wide. I like most foods. My favs would be pasta dishes (made with any kind, and any way). Chicken wings and thighs (fried or baked)

8) What kinds of drinks do you like?

If I drink sodas, I prefer Canada Dry blackberry or cranberry ginger ale. I like alcohol too, Moscato, mimosas and Malibu Rum are my favs but I'm friends with tequila too.

9) Favorite TV Show/Book or both?

Empire, All American and The Chosen. Favorite book: Becoming by Michelle Obama. Favorite movies: Black Panther, Django, and Jurassic Park ALL OF EM!!

10) What job did you do before you became a Reverend?

13) What's your favorite bible story that isn't talked about very often?

Acts 20:9-10. "Seated in a window was a young man named Eutychus, who was sinking into a deep sleep as Paul talked on and on. When he was sound asleep, he fell to the ground from the third story and was picked up dead. Paul went down, threw himself on the young man and put his arms around him. 'Don't be alarmed,' he said. 'He's alive!'"

14) Do you have any hidden talents outside of the ministry?

Line dancing, learning to play the bass guitar

I found out I needed glasses! I got up, opened the Bible to read the passage and couldn't see the words. It was a good thing I knew what I was preaching on because I couldn't read any of my sermon notes. Needless to say I made an eye doctor appointment first thing Monday morning.

16) What's your favorite hymn to sing and why?

"It is well with the my soul", and "In the Garden" because they ground me in the assurance that no matter what I'm facing God is with me in it and will take care of me.

18) Do you have a bible verse or saying that you use as your mantra?

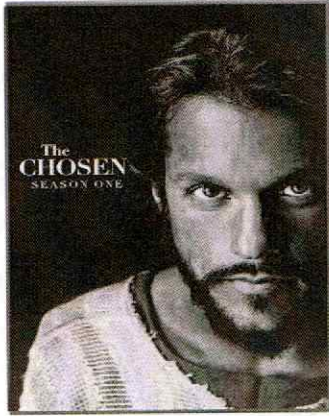

"The Spirit of the LORD is upon Me, Because He has anointed Me To preach the gospel to the poor, He has sent Me to heal the brokenhearted, To proclaim liberty to the captives And recovery of sight to the blind, To set at liberty those who are oppressed; Luke 4:18 NKJV

19) If you had to choose another line of work/career, what would you choose?

Nursing

A TIME OF TRANSITION: EMBRACING CHANGE AND WELCOMING REV. ROBIN

As February unfolds, we continue our journey as a faith-filled community, knowing that change is on the horizon. One of the most significant changes ahead is the departure of our beloved Fr. Tom. He has followed the Holy Spirit's call, serving us with wisdom, love, and faithfulness, and now he must continue his journey of Ministry beyond Christ Church. While we will deeply miss him, we will send him off with joy, gratitude, and a heart-felt reception on Sunday, Feb 2nd, at 11:30 in the narthex. This is our time to celebrate his dedication - his loving guidance, his healing presence, and the strength, hope, and peace he has shared with us. (Thank you, God!)

But change is not just saying goodbye— it is also about embracing new beginnings. As we prepare for what is next, we are invited to lean into faith, to trust in God's divine plan, and to come together as a community, ready to welcome the next chapter of our parish's story. (Thank you, God!)

On Sunday, March 2nd, we joyfully welcome Rev Robin with open arms! This is more than just another Sunday! It is a defining moment for us as a parish! She is coming to walk with us, to know us, and to guide us in faith—and we must be ready to receive her with love and enthusiasm. We will gather for an amazing sit-down catered reception at 11:30 in the parish hall, where her family will join us as she meets her new church community. Call the church to make your reservation. Remember: "ALL ARE WELCOME in this place!"

Your presence matters. This is our opportunity to make Rev. Robin feel at home, to share our stories, our hopes, and our vision for the future. We are all part of this unfolding chapter in the history of Christ Church, and each of us has a role to play. Be there. Show up with joy and anticipation. Let's welcome her into the heart of our church family as we step together into this new season of faith and growth. We need to get out of the Covid mind-set and have a renewed commitment NOT for financial reasons but for spiritual ones.

You do not want to miss this. This transition will shape us, challenge us, and strengthen us in ways we cannot yet imagine. Let's come together, ready to embrace the future with faith and excitement!

THANKS BE TO GOD!

Yours in Christ's Love,
Sandee Skovran
Senior Warden

Beloved,

As I sit and gaze out the window at the world cloaked in a soft blanket of white, I find myself marveling at the stillness and quiet beauty of this season. Winter, with its calm and reflective nature, invites us to pause and consider where we are on our spiritual journey. Beneath the surface of the frozen ground, unseen life stirs, awaiting the warmth of spring to burst forth in vibrant growth. In the same way, this season offers us an opportunity to nurture the seeds of faith and spiritual growth within ourselves.

Where will we be in the spring? It's a question worth pondering. Can you envision the green and growing things outside, as well as within? As we take time to reflect, let's consider the ways God might be empowering us to move toward new life, deeper faith, and greater love. What dreams, plans, or intentions has God placed on your heart? What are the spiritual seeds waiting to take root and flourish?

Winter is a time of preparation, a season for cultivating what we hope to see come alive in the seasons ahead. It is a time to pray, to listen, and to trust that God is at work even when growth feels slow or imperceptible. Just as a garden requires tending, our spiritual lives need intention and care. How might we prepare the soil of our hearts to receive God's transformative work? Perhaps it's through more intentional prayer, deeper engagement with Scripture, or reaching out in service to others.

As a community of Christ Church, we are on this journey together. Each of us brings unique gifts, callings, and insights that contribute to our shared growth. How do you envision God empowering your plan? Maybe it's through the encouragement of a friend, the wisdom of a church leader, or moments of prayer that draw on both global and local concerns. Whatever it may be, remember that God is faithful. Just as the earth responds to the sun's warmth and the gentle rains of spring, so too will our souls respond to God's nurturing presence.

Let's take this season of quiet reflection to dream boldly about what God can do in and through us particularly when we gather as church. Imagine the transformation that might occur within our church community as we each seek to grow more fully into the likeness of Christ. Imagine the beauty of a garden flourishing not just in the physical sense, but in the spiritual sense—a community rooted in love, blooming with grace, and bearing fruit for God's kingdom.

Let's journey through this winter with hopeful hearts, trusting that God is already preparing the way for growth, renewal, and abundance.

Tenderly in Christ,

Paul Keriotis

Director of Spiritual Formation

The Home of Lincoln School Students

There is a lot to like about living in Northeastern Ohio, including what is commonly referred to as the Mahoning Valley.

The cost of living in Trumbull and Mahoning counties is more affordable than in other places in Ohio and surrounding states.

Like all of them or not, we normally enjoy four definitive seasons when it comes to weather.

There are plenty of things to do all year long when it comes to recreation — boating, festivals, fishing, golf, hiking and countless other activities.

Foodies can't go wrong here, with all sorts of restaurants and cafes featuring classic comfort cuisine and other options for those who want to eat healthy.

The area also features multiple concert venues, both indoors and outdoors, that attract big-name artists and local favorites.

Educational opportunities abound with Youngstown State University and smaller colleges scattered around the tristate region, which includes Ohio, Pennsylvania and West Virginia. Young people and older folks can also develop career skills at many nearby trade schools.

Mill Creek Park is one of the largest and most impressive metropolitan parks in the United States.

But our region is not without issues that must be addressed. Like a lot of places, crime and drugs have taken root in the Valley, which has often dealt with economic issues dating back to the late 1970s. The loss of steel industry and other manufacturing jobs over the years has led to unemployment and poverty in some of our communities.

The Valley's two biggest cities — Warren and Youngstown — are at the top of the list of the worst cities in Ohio when it comes to childhood poverty, according to estimates from the U.S. Census Bureau.

In Warren, an astounding 56.7% of children live in poverty. In Youngstown, the figure is 51.3%. Portsmouth (50.1%) and East Cleveland (49.8%) round out the top four.

Childhood poverty is defined by the number of people 17 and under who live under the poverty level based on household income. In 2024, that standard was $31,200 for a family of four with two children.

In 2022, the official childhood poverty rate in the U.S. was 12.4%. In 2023, the figure rose to 16.3%. Those numbers rose from an historic low of 5.2% in 2021, after the expiration of the Child Tax Credit, a pandemic-era program.

Nationwide, an estimated 9 million children live in poverty today. This means that children are deprived of the necessary resources they need to grow into adults who are healthy, educated and able to independently sustain their well being.

We can see where this leads. But why are those numbers so much worse here?

The expiration of the CTC is just part of the problem. We can trace much of the poverty here to the loss of well-paying manufacturing jobs — many in the steel industry — beginning in the late 1970s and continuing through the closing of the Lordstown GM plant more recently.

And then there was the pandemic. Many parents lost jobs during the COVID-19 pandemic, which made it difficult for families to make ends meet. Skyrocketing inflation over the last few years has led to a rise in the cost of living as food, housing and other essential expenses all went up, putting an even bigger strain on family budgets.

Many school districts in Northeastern Ohio have stepped up to provide meals for students — sometimes two or even three meals per day. The hard question is how sustainable those programs can be as pandemic-era funds ran out last year.

The hope is that incoming manufacturing and other jobs — particularly in Trumbull County — can bring down the childhood poverty numbers in the region. The overall poverty rate here also may improve.

But those future jobs and paychecks won't feed and clothe our children, or provide proper health care today or next week. That's why we must continue to support churches, organizations and schools that do what they can to fill the gaps in children's lives. Childhood poverty in Warren and Youngstown didn't happen overnight and the problem won't be fixed quickly. It also won't fix itself.

Youngstown, where more than half of all our children live in poverty.

Christ Episcopal Church's Caring

Food, shelter and clothing are basic needs. Our CEC family has the potential to make a difference in the lives of Lincoln children by supplying needed food and clothing.

Our first initiative in 2014 was the birth of Megan's Mittens. Each Warren City School third grade child received a pair of mittens to keep their hands warm.

School Food Pantries were opened in 2019. They became an option for families in need to do their weekly grocery and clothing shopping. The Pantry offered an opportunity for CEC parishioners to donate a variety of needed foods and clothes.

For the last few years we have moved to provide bread and emergency food bags to ensure that Lincoln students have food. Each Tuesday we deliver two dozen loaves of bread and 100 Happy Meal bags, so named by a Lincoln elementary student. A couple of weeks ago we were told that the Happy Meal bags are gone in a day. Clothing is delivered as received.

The need is great. If you are able be a Blessing to a child. Give a gift of food and/or clothing.

Needed Items:

Happy Meal Bag: macaroni and cheese cup, spaghetti-o cup, ramen noodle pack, fruit cup, peanut butter crackers, juice pouch and a rice Krispie treat.

Clothing:

Boys: Sweatpants. Sizes 6 to 14

Girls: Leggings and sweatpants. Sizes 5 to 14.

NEEDS A LOVING HOME

Dear Parish Family,

I would like to donate my Mom's mixer to someone that could put it to use again. She used to make the altar bread with this mixer along with many other special treats. It's sentimental to me and I would like to know it's being used again and bringing happiness to others.

Peace!

Kevin Knowlton.

The Contract has been signed, and we have a new Preschool/Daycare moving in. There is lots of excitement and lots of boxes being delivered. The new owner is Danielle Knapp.

She will be spotlighted in the next CrossRoads.

Lots of fun things happening at Christ Episcopal Church

THE OHIO STATE NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

By Tiffany L. Fisher

If you don't recognize the following dates, Dec. 21, 2024, Jan. 1, 2025, January 10, 2025, and Jan 20, 2025, you may not be an Ohio State Football fan. But if you do, then you would know that THE Ohio State Football team played and won all four of those games to capture the National Championship. But it doesn't stop there. When the young men won the Championship, the first thing they did when interviewed was thank their Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. How amazing that young men who are between 18 and 25 would not only feel that connection with God but also be willing to talk about it on National Television.

Running back TreVeyon Henderson was interviewed on the field and he said, "Praise God, I wouldn't be here without him, I wouldn't be in this position but by his grace. We give him all the praise and glory so I am thankful."

Quarterback Will Howard was interviewed on the field and gave the glory to his Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. He knew he would not have been able to do this without the Lord.

The teams coach Ryan Day came from a Jesuit college in Boston and landed at Ohio State. He said this is a State college and a different experience, but watching the players grow spiritually is amazing. They have bible studies and have folks come in and speak to them. Seeing the players lead some of the bible studies is great. There are also times that Coach Day would round a corner at the stadium and hear some of the guys talking about God and having an impromptu bible study.

ESPN even jumped on the bandwagon to discuss the faith of the Ohio State football team. Not only their faith in each other, but their faith in above. It was inspiring because these teammates were not only baptizing each other but they were baptizing guys on campus, not just the football team. The ESPN commentators talked more about God than I had ever witnessed before.

Here we have a popular coach, and a popular College team and the most important message any of them wanted to send out was that they believe God was with them throughout this journey and it was to his glory that all of them were standing there on the football field raising that championship trophy.

I watched all the wonderful moments, saw all the interviews, and what intrigued me the most was wondering how many people, young and old, are going to get to know Jesus on a whole new level after watching and listening to the young men talk about our Lord.

So many times, we hear about the trouble that athletes get in, but not in this case. They are so inspirational. If one person comes to know Jesus because of these men it would be wonderful, but I have a feeling that so many more will wonder what it's all about and seek to know the truth of Jesus. Ohio State National Champions have a platform, and how wonderful it is they are using it to speak the good news about God.

“And daily in the temple, and in every house, they did not cease teaching and preaching Jesus as the Christ.” Acts 5:42

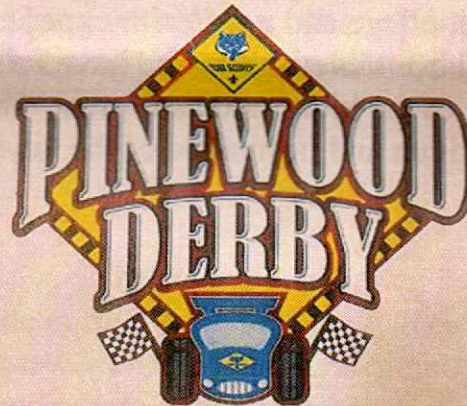

It could read, And daily on the field, and after every game, they did not cease teaching and preaching Jesus as the Christ.

LETTER FROM FATHER TOM

Dear Members of Christ Church Parish Community,

I am writing to thank you all for the very thoughtful and encouraging "farewell" reception on Sunday, February 2nd .

Thank you all for the many cards and verbal messages of appreciation. Thank you for the children's cards and portraits of me (some quite abstract). Thank you for the gifts of books, fancy pens, fruit, wine, gourmet snacks, candy, cake, baked goods, Church Mice and more. Thank you for the very generous monetary gifts.

Most of all, thank you for your friendship, kindness and love. The reception was a microcosm of the way you have treated me for the past two years. My time with you all has been (for the most part ) a time of great joy. Yes, we have shared some sad moments as we grieved the passing of some of our long-time members. But even those moments of sorrow were saturated with a deep sense of appreciation for the contributions and the life they shared with our parish. Even though being with people at the time of their dying is always sad, I count it as one of the great privileges of my time with you.

We have worked together to prepare for the next chapter of your parish life. We have discerned together what we believe is a direction and a vision for the future. Thanks to the hard work of the Vestry and Search Committee, you have chosen a wonderful person to lead you into this future and I am deeply grateful for your choice of The Rev. Dr. Robin Woodberry. She is a woman of deep faith, spiritual strength and great wisdom. I know that you will be in good hands with her as your next Rector.

I will be praying for you all every day, as I have done every day since I arrived here on January 1, 2023. Being with all of you has been one of the happiest chapter of my life. I love you all and I am deeply grateful for the love you have given me. I pray that you will love your new Rector with that same abundant love.

Gratefully yours,

*The Rev. Tom Furrer
(Recently retired) Interim Rector*
